Lucky Ticket in North Carolina Wins $2 Million Mega Millions

A quick stop at a Randolph County grocery store turned into a multimillion-dollar moment after a lucky Mega Millions ticket won a $2 million prize in last Friday's drawing. The winning ticket was purchased at H&M Grocery on U.S. 311 South in Sophia, proving once again that big dreams sometimes come with a shopping cart.

The $5 ticket matched all five white balls, earning a $1 million prize that was instantly doubled to $2 million thanks to the game's built-in multiplier. No gold Mega Ball was needed—just five perfect picks and a little lottery magic.

Only two tickets nationwide won $2 million in Friday's drawing, making it the largest prize claimed anywhere in the country that night. The other winning ticket was sold in Texas, which means North Carolina and Texas briefly shared bragging rights and probably a few happy dances.

The odds of matching all five white balls are 1 in 12.6 million, which makes this Randolph County win feel even sweeter. The winner has 180 days to come forward and claim the prize, hopefully after taking a deep breath and maybe a long look at their calendar.

Mega Millions tickets can be purchased at lottery retail locations statewide, through Online Play, or using the NC Lottery Official Mobile App.
