Remembering.....

By Ed McBride

Community Pride Banquet

I am sure that not many remember this event. It was the culmination of the Standard Broadcasting Company's contest from all over North and South Carolina.

The picture above is of the banners that I had painted for the occasion on February 6, 1963, in the Wadesboro High School gym. (Note the size of the banner - it was a long one.)

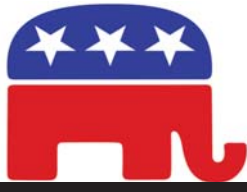

Then, on April 23, 1963, a Community Pride Banquet was held in the Robert E. Lee room of Bowman's Restaurant. W. Dunlap (Dunnie) Covington was Chamber of Commerce president, Frank C. Little was Wadesboro's Mayor and Norwood Cox was program chairman. Norwood worked through Joe H. Robinson to get J. E. Burnside, president of the Charlotte Chamber of Commerce, to present the program.

Other officers of the local Chamber of Commerce were Dudley Partrick, vice president, James Cameron, treasurer, and Wade Stout, secretary. Directors (including the above members) were John Crawford, Bill Wildermuth, Heywood McKinney, Risden Lyon, Frank Little, E. M. Ward, Fred Allen, Norwood Cox and Walter Brock. Staff members were Glenn F. Webb, Dorothy Benton and Brenda McCormick.
