

Would You Like to Try Watercolor painting?

On Tuesday, March 13 the Anson County Arts Council will sponsor a one day workshop to introduce Council to the fun of watercolor painting. The workshop, called "Exploring Flowers," will be held at the Olde Mill Gallery on the second level of the Lockhart-Taylor Center of SPCC at 114 N Washington Street. It runs from 1 to 4 p.m.

Artist Melody Dupre will have live flowers to use as inspiration. She will have most of the other materials you need, but if you have any of your own, please bring them. The cost of this workshop is $15.

Please call Melody Dupre to register and discuss supplies at 704-695-0991.

Chesterfield Genealogy Society Meets March 11

The Chesterfield District Chapter SCGS will meet Sunday, March 11 at 3 p.m. in the Meeting Room of the Chesterfield Visitors Center (Old Courthouse) at 100 Main Street in Chesterfield. The guest speaker will be Civil War historian Dr. John Chandler Griffin, a retired English professor from the University of South Carolina and author of 23 non-fiction books.

The subject of Dr. Griffin's presentation will be his new book "The War For Southern Independence." If you are at interested in this period of history, this would be a good presentation for you to hear. Dr Griffin will be signing books.

Their research library hours are Fridays, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., Saturdays 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., and other times by appointment. The meetings and library are open to the public.
