American Red Cross Lifeguarding Course

If you are interested in taking the American Red Cross Lifeguarding Course, please contact Wendell Small at Anson County Parks and Recreation, 704-695-2782.

There are three levels:

- Instructor Class - April 27, 28, 29 (Must be a certified Lifeguard before taking an instructor level class)

- Renewal Class - May 4, 5, 6

- Beginner Class - May 18, 19, 20

To be eligible for the Lifeguarding course the participant must be 15 years of age on or before the final scheduled session of this course. The participant must successfully complete the following:

1) Swim 300 yards continuously, using these strokes in the following order:

- 100 yards of front crawl using rhythmic breathing and a stabilizing, propellant kick. Rhythmic breathing can be performed either by breathing to the side or the front.

- 100 yards of breaststroke using a pull, breathe, kick or glide sequence.

- 100 yards of either the front crawl or breaststroke. The 100 yards may be a combination of front crawl and breaststroke.

2) Starting in the water, swim 20 yards using front crawl or breaststroke, surface, dive 7-10 feet, retrieve a 10-pound object, return to the surface, swim 20 yards back to the starting point with the object, and exit the water without using a ladder or steps, within 1 minute 40 seconds.

3) Tread water for 2 minutes without the use of hands.

For more information or to enroll call 704-695-2782.

Mr. Hugh Emmette Wallace

On Friday, March 16, 2018, prominent Anson County businessman Hugh Emmette Wallace, age 83, went to be with his Lord.

Funeral services were held on Monday, March 19, 2018, at First Presbyterian Church, Wadesboro with Mr. Ken Goins, CLP, officiating.

There was a visitation on Tuesday, March 20, 2018, at Appalachian Funeral Services in Sylva, North Carolina followed by a graveside service at Old Savannah Baptist Church Cemetery, also in Sylva.

Mr Wallace was born March 16, 1935, in Nash County, North Carolina to the late James Jefferson Wallace and Hettie Belle Joyner Wallace. He lost both his parents as a young boy and was raised by his mother's sister Pattie and her husband Paul Langley of Rocky Mount, NC.

Hugh is survived by his wife of 56 years, JoAnne Bradley Wallace of Wadesboro, NC; two sons, Steve Hugh Wallace and wife Mary, and Kirk David Wallace and wife Kristie, all of Norwood, NC; and five cherished grandchildren, Mary Catherine Chase Wallace, Stephen Hugh Wallace, Jr., Anna Christine Wallace, Abbey Caroline Wallace and John David Wallace.

He was preceded in death by his brother Bobby Joe Wallace of Rocky Mount, and is survived by his sister, Myrtle Talton of Raleigh, NC and brother Vernon Wallace of Rocky Mount. His adopted family of Alta and Daxie Dozier, Luanne Langley Jones (Marshall), Marshall Langley (Bette), Wayon Langley (Carolyn) and Donnie Langley will forever be cherished.

Mr. Wallace graduated from Coopers High School in Nash County, NC where he played baseball and was voted most likely to succeed among other honors. Afterwards he served honorably in the United States Army, stationed in Germany from 1954 to 1956. In 1960 he graduated with honors from Wake Forest University in business administration and accounting, and began his business career with Springs Industries in Lancaster, SC as an accountant. He later operated their Kanawha Insurance division.

In 1969 he moved his family to Wadesboro as an executive with West Knitting Mills. During his business career Mr. Wallace founded many businesses: Carolina Options, Inc., Unity Knitting Mills, Inc., Anson Apparel Company, Inc., Stanly Apparel, Spuntex Knitting, Kingstree Knitting and Meadowview Terrace. He served on the board of directors for Uwharrie Capital Corp. and truly enjoyed the fellowship of its employees.

As a longtime member of the Wadesboro Rotary Club he served as the club's president and was honored as a Paul Harris Fellow. His many interests included the Boy Scouts, Anson United Way, and serving on the Anson County Economic Development Corporation.

Mr Wallace loved his family as well as his fellow man. Many acts of kindness were just his way and was a testament to his faith and love of God. Having served as a church elder and Sunday school teacher, the First Presbyterian Church of Wadesboro was a joy of his faith for over 49 years. He was a mentor to many and will be missed by his family and community.

A special thanks to Leslie Lett, Paula Shaw and Teresa Jones for the loving care they provided, and especially to his neighbor Brenda McCormick and her son Dwight and wife Linda.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to First Presbyterian Church, P.O. Box 351, Wadesboro, NC 28170 or to Old Savannah Baptist Church Cemetery Fund, Dan Buchanan, 186 Chigger Ridge, Sylva, NC 28779

The arrangements were in care of Leavitt Funeral Home. Online condolences may be made at www.leavittfh.com. Appalachian Funeral Services in Sylva assisted with arrangements.
