

Harvest Ministries Outreach Center and Community Agency "CityReach" once again held the Show the Love Event in February. While HMOC provides services and programs throughout the county every day, each February efforts are focused on specific needs and areas that could use assistance.

This year was no different. Each ministry area of the church was given assignments and responsibilities to touch the various communities of Anson County.

- The Women's Ministry donated hundreds of school supplies to Morven Elementary School, as well as providing groceries and other living assistance to victims of a house fire.

- The Men's Ministry provided drinks and snacks for children's outreach programs.
- The Powerhouse Children's Group wrote thank you cards and valentines to their teachers.
- The Fusion Youth Ministry handed out 50 bags of groceries in random neighborhoods.
- The 412 Young Adults provided hundreds of school supplies to Winterfield Elementary School located in Charlotte where Harvest operates another ministry called Innovation.

Lead Pastor of HMOC Steve Adams shared, "There is no greater joy or love shown than when we help others. Of all the programs, services, and community events we try to do, finding needs and filling them, and finding hurts and healing them are what we get the greatest blessing from."

For more information on HMOC or the many community endeavors they provide, Adams can be reached at 704-695-2879 or by visiting www.harvestmin.com.

Heritage Supper at BRLC

In a release from the Burnsville Recreation & Learning Center: As parents, community citizens and children filled the Burnsville Recreation & Learning Center Multipurpose Room the spirit of expectation was felt from all who were there. Saturdays for many folks is a time of much delayed homework and other things that has been left undone all week because of busy schedules. This did not stop the BRLC Kids Café students and community children from working hard on their preparation for their first Heritage Supper.

The supper consisted of collard greens, corn bread, fried fat back, sweet potato pies, pound cake, baked chicken and gravy. There were stewed chicken feet to wash it all down. Thank you to all who volunteered and made this a great supper.

Once supper was served the theatrical presentation began. Five year old Norah Colson gave a hardy welcome, Caroline Veronica led the Lord's Prayer, Jonhtavis Booker led the Pledge of Allegiance, Angie Veronica did the pledge to the lamb and Kensey Colson pledged allegiance to the Bible. Jaquavis Booker and Mya Sturdivant shared their musical talent on the piano and trombone. Alton Jackson and Brianna Clybun read scriptures from the bible. Rasheed Burns spoke as former Mayor of Ansonville, Mr. Walter C. Watkins and Espronza Veronica shared Rosa Park's story, and rising poet Mrs. Linda Davis of the Ansonville Community recited one of her newly created poems.

Four awards were given to local Africans Americans in honor of their contributions to BRLC and their years of service - Mr. George Thompson of Thompson Business Services of Monroe (presented by Nelson Jackson), Mr. Rayvone Horne of the Burnsville Community (presented by Jeremy Sikes) and Mrs. Margaret Horne of the Burnsville Community (presented by Taylor Rorie). Mr. James Smith of James Tire Services of the Burnsville Community was not able to attend.

The Heritage Supper was closed with the I Have a Dream speech read by Allen Jackson, Enrique Burns and Victor Medly (pictured above).

MC's for the event were Marcella Broadway and Shaun Roberson.
