Exploratory Meeting for Writers' Coop

Are you a writer or a published author who just doesn't know how to get your book sold? There is a group of writers and authors in Anson County inviting you to a meeting to consider a collaborative effort in the form of a cooperative to help you to market your books more easily and cost-effectively.

The initial interest meeting will be held at the Hampton B. Allen Library, located at 120 South Greene Street in uptown Wadesboro, on Saturday, June 8 at 10 a.m. If there is sufficient interest we will start the process of developing the business plan that the coop will be based on. We should be able to reduce the marketing costs per book sold making you, the author, more profit.

This regional effort is open to all of the surrounding counties.
