

Carol Jeffery and David Helms Honored by BRLC

In a release from BRLC: The Burnsville Recreation and Learning Center recently honored two special people, Carol Jeffery and David Helms.

Jeffery and Helms both serve Anson County weekly through the BRLC. Ms. Jeffery of the Burnsville area served as the MVP Food Lion Coordinator and food transporter. She is responsible for making sure that the entire community is informed on the MVP project. (This is a way that individuals can help the BRLC when you shop at any Food Lion Store. Just call 704-826-8182 and we can set you up to help BRLC.) Her next responsibility is to make sure the food she picks up weekly is stored properly when she brings it into the center. She is to document the poundage and temperature of the freezers and refrigerators reading at her time of services. Mrs. Sara Thomas presented her with a certificate as well as a gift basket from the BRLC.

Mr. David Helms, also from the Burnsville community, picks up on Sundays. This is the day that he chose to share his kindness with the people of Anson County. David also has to store the food properly and document the poundage, and keep a record of the temperature on the freezers and refrigerators. He always provides a great smile and kind words to all the people he meets. He was awarded a certificate of appreciation and a personal gift basket.

Jeffery and Helms were recognized at the BRLC volunteers breakfast and meeting. Anson Crisis Ministry Director Ann James was the guest speaker. Mrs. James told the audience of the different programs offered under the umbrella of Anson Crisis Ministry. Questions were received and answered by Mrs. James. The BRLC volunteer meeting followed and the two volunteers for the month of April were honored.

The April breakfast consisted of bacon, eggs, sausage, grits, toast, juice, coffee and water. This great meal was prepared by volunteers Mary Hammond, Jeremy Sikes, Brenda Bent and Sarah Burns.

May 18th will be the next volunteer meeting at 10 a.m. Breakfast will be at 9:30 a.m. Circles of Hope Director Steven Shytle will be the guest speaker. The community is invited to come out on the 3rd Saturday and have breakfast with the BRLC volunteers, get to know your neighbors and learn about BRLC and Circles of Hope.
