Summer Activities Available in Cheraw

The Cheraw Arts Commission will be offering a variety of summer classes & camps for all ages. There will be no excuse for boredom this summer!

Several opportunities are available for the aspiring actor. Storybook Theatre for K-3rd grades will focus on characters from children's storybooks, while older students (4th-6th) will perform scenes from well-known classic plays in Classic Theatre during June 17-20.

Porkchop Productions returns to Cheraw with Summer Theatre Camp August 5-9 for 1st-12th grades. Camp will end with a performance at the Theatre on Friday evening.

Students can acquire additional skills this summer with Young Knitters Classes (July 8-11-4th grades & up) and Photography Instruction (June 27 & July 11) at the State Park. The Japanese art of paperfolding, Origami, will also be taught on July 22-24.

Wacky Wednesdays return this summer. These mini-classes are $10 or less and include a variety of art instruction for Wee Ones (3-5yrs) and Young Ones (6-8yrs) on various Wednesdays.

Cirque du Cheraw comes to town on July 25th. Participants from ages 4 yrs-Adults can learn various circus basics that include hooping, partner acrobatics and aerial silk fundamentals. A special performance by FLAIR will conclude each 90 minute workshop.

Contact the Cheraw Arts Commission at 843-537-8420 x 12 for additional information about summer classes. Brochures that include all CAC and Cheraw Recreation activities are available at the Cheraw Community Center.
