Sandhills Farm Tour

In a release from Aimee Rankin: Do you like buying local? Do you enjoy visiting farms? If so be sure to take your family on the 2012 Sandhills Farm Tour this month! Local farms in Montgomery, Anson, Moore and Richmond counties will be hosting their second annual farm tour Saturday, June 23rd, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The seven participating farms last year were phenomenal - this year the number of farms has increased to 17! This year we are starting the event at the 517 acre Sandhills Research Station located at 2148 Windblow Road in Jackson Springs, NC. The event will feature hayrides, music from local potter Will McCanless, and many opportunities to learn about the diversity of NC agriculture, the top industry in the state. This is a perfect family day-trip where you can tour farms, sample great locally grown food, and have a day of excitement!

Each farm has a specialty whether it is with local food or history of times past. Some of the farms will have cooking demonstrations and family fun activities. If you are interested in attending, tickets are $15 per carload before June 22nd, and will be available for purchase by check or cash at the Anson Cooperative Extension Service at 501 McLaurin Street in Wadesboro. Extension offices in Moore, Montgomery, and Richmond counties will also have tickets available.

Also, tickets can be purchased at 9 a.m. on Saturday, June 23 at the Sandhills Research Station for $18 per carload. For more information please contact Aimee Rankin at the Anson Cooperative Extension Service, 704-694-2415 or visit anson.ces.ncsu.edu.
