Nominate Anson County Farmers

The Chairman of USDA's North Carolina Farm Service Agency (FSA) has important advice for area farmers and producers:
"Nominate candidates to your FSA Anson County Committee! Anson County agriculture needs good farmers to serve."
Pender Sharp, a Wilson County farm business owner and Chairman of North Carolina's FSA State Committee, was referring to the election of Members to FSA's Anson County Committee, a process now underway.
"The Anson FSA County Committee puts the farm community directly in front of the U.S. Department of Agriculture," said Sharp. "A nomination to the County Committee ensures that Anson County landowners, farmers and producers have influence in decisions critical to USDA business!"
Anson County FSA Committee Members make decisions on disaster and conservation programs, emergency programs, commodity price support loan programs and other agricultural issues.
Farmers and producers may nominate themselves or others. Organizations representing minorities and women may nominate candidates. To become a candidate, eligible individuals must sign nomination form FSA-669A. This form - and other information about FSA County Committee elections - are available at FSA.usda.gov/elections, or the Anson County Farm Service Office located at 1758 Morven Road in Wadesboro.
Election nomination forms must be postmarked or received in the Anson County USDA Service Center by close of business August 1. Elections take place this fall.
