Mr. Y. Wallace Adcock, Jr.

Mr. Y. Wallace Adcock, Jr., 79, died peacefully Thursday, June 23, 2011, at Meadowview Terrace Assisted Living in Wadesboro.

A service to celebrate the life of Wallace Adcock was held on Sunday, June 26, 2011, at First Baptist Church, Wadesboro with Dr. Robert L. Hunter, Jr. officiating. Interment followed in Anson Memorial Park.

Wallace was born in Durham, NC on October 1, 1931, a son of the late Y. Wallace and Eunice Brown Adcock. He attended Durham High School and joined the US Naval Reserve while still in high school. In 1951, during the Korean Conflict, Wallace volunteered for active duty and served as a Submarine Tender for the USS Sperry and the USS Nereus in the 11th Naval District, San Diego, CA until his discharge in 1953.

In November of 1953 Wallace joined the NC State Highway Patrol and graduated from basic patrol school at the Institute of Government in Chapel Hill in 1954. His first appointment was to Anson County where he faithfully "patrolled" until his retirement in December 1984, with 31 years of service. In 1985 Wallace joined the staff of Leavitt Funeral Home and continued to serve the people of Anson County until his retirement in 2005.

A member of First Baptist Church since his arrival in Anson County, Wallace was productive in many facets of church activities and groups, most notably serving as Sunday School Secretary for many years. He was also a member of the Oasis Temple of the Shrine and Kilwinning Masonic Lodge # 64.

Survivors include his daughters and sons-in-law, Cheryl A. and Jim E. Cameron of Oakboro and Deborah A. and Randy Thomas of Marshville; grandchildren, Stephanie T. Crouch (Jerry) of Monroe, Carrie A. Cameron of Monroe, and Shannon T. Carpenter (Justin) of Peachland; great-grandchildren, Alexys Church, Jada Church, Juliana Church, Weston Carpenter and Daylen Carpenter; his sisters, Julia A. Moore of Durham and Faye A. Dennis of Roanoke, VA; a niece, Vickie Marie Moore of Durham and a nephew, Bobby Dennis of Roanoke, VA. His grandson, Robert Wallace Thomas preceded him in death.

Memorials may be made to First Baptist Church, P.O. Box 423, Wadesboro, NC 28170; or to Kilwinning Masonic Lodge # 64, P.O. Box 777,

Mr. John Jefferson Crawford Sr.

Mr. John Jefferson Crawford Sr., 91, formerly of Wadesboro, died suddenly Thursday, June 23, 2011, at his home in Mt. Pleasant, SC. Funeral services were held on Sunday, June 26, 2011, in Leavitt Funeral Home with Rev. Rob Rollins officiating.

John was born in Anson County on May 7, 1920, a son of the late Clayton Arthur and Mary Lou Tucker Crawford. He graduated Wadesboro High School and attended Wofford College. While serving in the Army Air Corps during World War II John was stationed at Rosecrans Air Field in St. Joseph, MO where he met Virginia Lang. Following his discharge from the service he returned to St. Joseph where he and "Gina" were married and began their life together in Wadesboro.

John joined with his father in the automobile and finance business, later becoming President of Crawford Motor Company and Crawford Finance Company. He was active in local politics, serving as a county commissioner during the time that the Anson County water filtration plant was built on Blewett Falls Lake. He also served on the Wadesboro town council while the expansion of Highway 74 went from two lanes to four, and also hired the first town manager. John served as a director for Anson Savings & Loan, First National Bank, Southern National Bank and BB&T. He served a number of years on the Anson Industrial Commission and was very active in the local Civitan Club. John was a wonderful Sunday school teacher and served in many areas of his beloved First United Methodist Church.

Survivors include his son, John J. "Jeff" Crawford (Betty) of Wadesboro; his daughter, Leigh C. Dawson (Donald) of Mt. Pleasant; three grandchildren, Farrah (Ryan) Balderson, Amy Crawford

(Kevin) Spencer, and John Edward (Ashley) Crawford; five great-grandchildren; and a sister, Martha Cheves of Morganton, NC. One grand-daughter, Cheryl Jane Crawford, preceded him in death.

Memorials may be made to First United Methodist Church, 118 E. Morgan St., Wadesboro, NC 28170 or to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation 6931 Arlington Road (2nd Floor), Bethesda, Maryland 20814.
