

Remembering.....

By Ed McBride

Warmer Days...

Remembering the "warmer days" gone by when there was absolutely no air conditioning here - our homes, business places, grocery stores, goods stores, churches, etc. There just wasn't any air conditioning. I can even remember the "funeral home" fans with "hand power." I also remember when some businesses installed electric fans - some pedestal, some mounted in different areas in the business places.

The above picture was Edna's Tea Room. I painted the sign on June 17, 1958, for the grand sum of $20 - a big deal because it was air conditioned while you sat to eat. (Allen was then eating with both hands!)

What a change in so many ways. I remember many, many of the downtown places of business as they went from fans to air conditioning - such as Belk's, B.C. Moores, Fox & Lyon Drug Store, Parsons, H. W. Little & Company, Bank of Wadesboro, First National Bank - these are just a mere "sample" of the "new air customers"...and the changes in how we live, moment by moment, day by day!! STAY COOL!! Ed
