Bluegrass Music Returns to the Library

Musicians, singers and listeners are invited - and nobody has to whisper

The Hampton B. Allen Library will once again trade the traditional sounds of a quiet library for banjos, guitars and plenty of picking and grinning during its ongoing Bluegrass Music Acoustic Set on Thursday, August 13.

The music will run from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the library's Little Theater. Musicians and singers of all ages and skill levels are invited to bring their instruments, voices and enthusiasm and join in. Spectators are equally welcome - no musical talent required.

Whether you can pick a banjo at lightning speed, know three chords on a guitar or simply enjoy tapping your foot while somebody else does all the hard work, there's a place for you.

Children age 12 and under must be accompanied by an adult. Everyone else can just accompany the musicians.

Come join the fun and enjoy an evening of live bluegrass music at the library. For more information call 704-694-5177.

Kids Expo Scheduled for Saturday, August 22

Young entrepreneurs invited to showcase their ideas and learn business skills

The Anson County Chamber of Commerce will host its fifth annual Kids Expo on Saturday, August 22, from 9 a.m. until noon in the parking lot of First Baptist Church in Wadesboro. The event is designed for students in grades K-12 and offers young entrepreneurs an opportunity to create, develop and market a product or service they are passionate about. Strictly a kids-only marketplace, participants are responsible for selling and promoting their own products and services. Through the experience, they gain valuable real-world skills in math, communication, creativity and marketing.

Awards will be presented in each age group for Most Original Business Idea, Highest Business Potential and Best Presentation/Creativity. Participants also have opportunities to make connections, gain exposure for their businesses and build experience in sales and marketing.

The public is invited to come browse, shop and encourage the next generation of business owners.

Applications are open now, with a registration deadline of this Friday, August 14. Sponsorships Sponsorship opportunities are also available. Community sponsors receive logo placement on event T-shirts, recognition on social media and the Chamber website, a judging opportunity and an invitation to the welcome celebration on the morning of the event.

For more information about participating or becoming a sponsor, contact the Anson County Chamber of Commerce at 704-694-4181 or info@ansoncountychamber.org. The Chamber office is located at 107-C West Wade Street in Wadesboro.
