Don't Become A Fraud Victim!

Many people believe they can spot a con artist a mile away. Thieves are getting more sophisticated in their strategy to steal your money.

The North Carolina Secretary of State Securities Division wants to help you avoid losing your retirement funds or other savings to scam artists. Do you know how to recognize investment red flags, the types of scams prevalent today and what you should know to avoid becoming a victim of investment schemes? Do you know the difference between a stock broker, an investment adviser and a financial planner?

Learn not only their varied functions, but also what their responsibilities are by attending an informative presentation to be held on Thursday, August 25th from 1 to 2 p.m. at Grace Senior Center. Free publications and light refreshments will be available. Persons interested should call Grace Senior Center at 704-694-6616 to register and for additional information. The seminar is free.

Many people are struggling in these difficult financial times to just keep their heads above water, so before entrusting your hard earned and saved money to any type investment, come to this one hour session and learn about the warning signs of fraud and how to avoid them, how scammers find you and why senior citizens are targets.
