Harvest Ministries Outreach Center Hosts Mobile Bible School

On Thursday, August 7 through Saturday, August 9 Harvest Ministries Outreach Center in Wadesboro took Vacation Bible School to the streets of Wadesboro. Residents in the areas of Arbor Street, Oak Hill, and the Lower Projects area were reached with games, food, prizes, activities, crafts, and more.

Nearly 75 individuals participated in this great event that was designed to bring the gospel to the neighborhoods! Lead Pastor Steve Adams of HMOC shared, "Anson County is blessed with many great Vacation Bible Schools every summer, and we did not want to overlap on any of those great moments, so our desire was to bring Bible School to communities."

Every evening from 6 to 8 p.m. tents went up, tarps were laid down, positive music was played, and the stories of the Gospel were being told.

Adams added, "To see these neighborhood children and families smiling and playing, all while learning about Christ, pretty much is a great memory."

Special thanks to Deaconess Donna Parson and the HMOC people for their dedication and commitment to Mobile Vacation Bible School.
