ANSON COUNTY TAX ASSESSOR

Anson County 2018 Revaluation

The Anson County Tax Assessor's Office is currently conducting the 2018 Revaluation. This requires visiting every property in Anson County so that each parcel is updated to meet the mandatory requirements of NC General Statute 105-286, NC General Statute 105-283 and General Statute 105-317. These requirements state that every county in North Carolina must reappraise each parcel and come to a fair market value for taxation at least every 8 years. The revaluation will be effective January 1, 2018.

Anson County has contracted with Pearson's Appraisal Services to provide this service. You will probably see data collectors in the county collecting data and taking pictures. Their vehicles will be marked and they will be wearing name badges with their picture.

Please call the Anson County Tax Assessor's Office if you have any questions about this project.
