SC Jazz Festival in Cheraw Sidewalk Chalk Competition is Seeking Individuals and Teams

The Cheraw Arts Commission is looking for teams and individuals to participate in the Sidewalk Chalk Competition on Saturday, October 15 at this year's South Carolina Jazz Festival. We will be remembering jazz legend and Cheraw native Dizzy Gillespie during his 105th birthday.

The annual festival will once again present "Madonnari-Southern Style." This sidewalk chalk competition is based on the 16th century Italian art form called "Madonnari" or Italian Street Painting. Italian street painters or chalk artists were named I Madonnari as their creations were of the Madonna.

The artists were employed to create art for city cathedrals. Upon completion of their work, the street painters replicated the church paintings onto the pavement during holy days and festivals. Visitors would toss coins upon approval of the street paintings.

Sidewalk masterpieces have been featured for several years during the South Carolina Jazz Festival. Individuals and Teams will display their Street Painting skills on the sidewalk near at the Theatre on the Green. Monetary prizes will be awarded to the winning teams and individuals. Teams can consist of families, friends, organizations, schools, churches, or businesses. All ages can participate.

Contact the Cheraw Arts Commission 843.537.8420 x 12 for registration forms and information. Deadline to register is October 12. For additional information about the 2022 South Carolina Jazz Festival (October 13-16) visit www.scjazzfestival.com.
