Commissioner Vanceine Sturdivant
Nominated to National Association of Counties

Anson County Commissioner Vanceine Sturdivant was nominated to the Community, Economic and Workforce Development Steering Committee of the National Association of Counties (NACo). Committee membership at the national level is a serious commitment and responsibility, but it is also a rewarding experience. Nominees are chosen by their work service record, community service and abilities.

A great deal of NACo's strength is in their committees and members' active participation reflects and reinforces that strength. The expertise and engagement of steering committee members is a main reason why Congress and federal agencies often look to NACo for feedback on legislative policy decisions being made in Washington, D.C.

Sturdivant's nomination to a NACo steering committee also presents a great opportunity to share with and learn from county colleagues.

Each member is required to attend:
• NACo's 2017 Legislative Conference takes place Feb. 25 - March 1 in Washington, D. C.
• NACo's 2017 Annual Conference takes place July 21 - 24 in Franklin County, Ohio

One of the projects that Commissioner Sturdivant will work on is the initiative called "The Counties Matter Challenge: Brilliant Ideas at Work." Working with state associations and affiliates, this initiative will promote best practices that bolster our nation's ability to thrive amid ever-changing physical, social and economic conditions, and help identify and share examples of county leadership that result in improving resident's quality of life.

Sturdivant stated, "I look forward to working closely with the Steering Committee to further the goals of our nation's counties. Our theme is, "Stronger Counties, Stronger AMERICA."

Put Life Back Into Your Life.
Consider a Living Healthy Workshop.

Are you an adult dealing with an ongoing health condition? If you have conditions such as diabetes, arthritis, high blood pressure, heart disease, overweight, chronic pain, anxiety, the Living Healthy Workshop can help you take charge of your life.

You don't have to stop doing the things you love to do. The key to getting the most out of life is learning to manage your symptoms. No matter your situation, the Living Healthy workshop can assist you in taking control.

Come get the support and tools you need to self manage your condition. You and the instructors will work together to find practical ways to deal with pain, fatigue and frustration, discover better nutrition and exercise choices, understand new treatment choices, and learn better ways to talk with your doctor and family about your health.

Join the 2 1/2-hour Living Healthy Workshop at Grace Senior Center, held each week for six weeks. Learn from trained leaders who are dealing with health conditions themselves. Set your own goals and make a step-by-step plan to improve your health - and your life.

Classes will be held every Thursday starting September 29 and running through November 3. They will be held at the Grace Senior Center from 1 to 3:30 p.m.

Sign up now! Spaces are limited. To register or get more information please call Rita Short at 704-694-6217.

Anson Middle School Golf Team
Finished Third in Season Opener

The Anson Middle School Golf team finished third on Tuesday, September 13 at Cypress Creek in Laurinburg in their season opener. The team was led by Gavin Smith who shot 46. Cameron Parker shot 56, Drew Thomas shot 56, Jesse Usrey shot 56, Grant Thuleen shot 63 and Jack Forbes shot 65.

Anson Middle School Bearcat
Football Team Off to a Roaring Start!

The Anson Middle School Bearcats started their 2016 football season in impressive fashion, beating Long Middle School (from Cheraw) 37-0. They then beat Chesterfield Middle School 42-0.

The Bearcats are led by a strong rushing attack featuring several running backs. Through the first two weeks they are averaging more than 200 yards per game. The defense is playing lights out, holding both opponents to negative total yards, meaning that the opposing teams are being tackled behind the line of scrimmage on a majority of the plays. The defense has forced six turnovers, including an interception and five fumble recoveries, plus a touchdown.

The Bearcats hope to continue dominating their opponents, beginning with West Hoke on Wednesday, October 5 in Raeford. Submitted by JF Harward

Mrs. Rachel Curlee Faulkner

Mrs. Rachel Curlee Faulkner 90, died Wednesday, September 14, 2016, at Autumn Care in Marshville. Funeral Services were held on Saturday 17, 2016, at the Peachland Baptist Church with Rev. Phillip Parrish officiating. Interment followed in the Peachland Cemetery.

Mrs. Faulkner was born January 19, 1926, to the late Edd and Carrie Curlee. Her career with the US Postal Service spanned 38 years, where she retired as Postmaster. And, in her words, she loved every minute of it. Aside from her work she was an active member of the Peachland Baptist Church and also very involved in the community.

She was the best mother and grandmother we could ever wish for. We love you more than words can say.

She was preceded in death by her husband Robert M. Faulkner.

She is survived by two sisters, Louise Litaker and Gladys Caudle of Charlotte; a sister-in-law, Eva McCullough of Hamlet; son Robert M. Faulkner Jr. (Linda) of Marshville; daughter Judy Garris (Steve) of Peachland; grandchildren, Kim Stone, (Aaron) of Atlanta, GA, Tony Faulkner (Kim) of Indian Trail and Derrick Faulkner (Jessica) of New Salem; five great grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

The family would like to say a very special thank you to caregivers Betty Stegall, Judy Evans and Tammy Hall who made it possible for Rachel to stay in her own home. To Mandy, Wayne, LeLe Maske and all the staff at Fairfield Manor who provided a loving home away from home, and to the Nurses, CNAs, Physical Therapists, and all the staff at Autumn Care.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Peachland Baptist Church, PO Box 146, Peachland, NC, 28133.

Online condolences may be made at morganandsonfuneralhome.com. Morgan & Son Funeral Home of Marshville is in charge of arrangements.
