Schools Set Parent/Teacher Conference Dates

Anson County Schools has announced dates for fall parent/teacher conferences, giving families an opportunity to meet with teachers, discuss student progress and work together on plans for continued growth and success.

Middle and high school parent/teacher conferences will be held Thursday, October 22 from 2 to 6 p.m. Middle and high school students will be dismissed early at 1 p.m. that day.

Elementary school conferences will follow on Thursday, October 29 from 1:30 to 5:30 p.m. Elementary students will be dismissed at 12:30 p.m.

Individual schools will provide parents with additional information about scheduling conferences. Families unable to attend during the scheduled conference hours can contact their child's school to arrange another time.

The school system encourages parents to use the conferences not only to discuss concerns, but also to recognize their child's accomplishments and talk with teachers about resources and strategies that can support continued learning.

Anson County Schools says the conferences are part of its efforts to strengthen communication between families and schools. The initiative ties into the district's strategic plan priorities for Community Relations & Family Engagement and Student Learning & Success.

Masquerade Book Bash Promises a Night of Mystery, Music and Fun

Friends of the Hampton B. Allen Library plan elegant October fundraiser at Flake Haven

Masks, books and a little mystery will come together for a special evening when the Friends of the Hampton B. Allen Library present their Masquerade Book Bash on Friday, October 23, at Flake Haven.

The event will be held from 6 to 11 p.m., giving guests five hours to mingle, celebrate and perhaps spend a little time trying to figure out exactly who is hiding behind that fancy mask.

The organizers are excited to announce that Carson Hill will be sharing her musical talents at the Masquerade Book Bash.

Presented by the Friends of the Hampton B. Allen Library, the Masquerade Book Bash promises to put an elegant twist on supporting one of the community's most treasured institutions. Guests are encouraged to embrace the masquerade spirit and make an evening of it.

Flake Haven is located at 5298 North Carolina Highway 742 North in Wadesboro.

For more information about the Masquerade Book Bash, call the Hampton B. Allen Library at 704-694-5177.

So find a mask, add a little mystery and mark October 23 on the calendar. After all, supporting the library is always a good idea - and doing it while disguised just makes it more interesting.

Stronger Together Community Event Coming to Monroe

October 24 gathering will offer health screenings, community resources, family fun and free lunch

The Black Women Alliance will host Stronger Together: Our Community. Our Voice. Our Future. on Saturday, October 24, bringing together community services, information and family activities for a free event in Monroe.

The event will be held from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at First Presbyterian Church, located at 302 E. Windsor Avenue in Monroe. Organizers describe the gathering as a day of connection, resources and empowerment, with the message that everyone is welcome.

Community health services will include free health screenings and education, while representatives will also provide information about important issues affecting the community. Local agencies and support services will be on hand to help residents learn about available community resources.

The day will also feature games, music, prizes and other family fun, along with Halloween treats for youngsters. A free lunch will be provided.

The event will include election information and voter status checks. A Souls for the Polls activity is scheduled from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., with transportation from the church to a voting location. Same-day registration and voting will also be available.

Organizers say the goal is to bring people together to connect, learn, vote and celebrate, while building a stronger community.

Registration is requested please by October 19. You can use the QR code.
