

Sidewalk Sale, Movie Preview During Taste of the Pee Dee

The Anson County Arts Council will hold a sidewalk sale next to the Ansonia Theatre in uptown Wadesboro during Taste of the Pee Dee this Saturday, October 11. The sale will run from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. Only cash and checks will be accepted.

Also, the Arts Council Gallery will be open from 10 until 4 that day for purchases of artists' work at regular prices. If you've never come in, here's the perfect chance!

Next door at the Ansonia Theatre, a 10-minute preview of the movie Hank vs. the Undead by Wadesboro native Dan Sellers, who currently lives in Greensboro, will play several times following the Zombie 5K. This movie preview is not appropriate for young children. (It's a zombie movie!)

As you're walking around Taste of the Pee Dee, don't forget to visit South Rutherford Street. There's a lot going on!

Discover Anson Bike Ride is Saturday!

The Ninth Annual Discover Anson Bike Ride will be held this Saturday, October 11 in Wadesboro which is a new date, location and routes. The ride includes the choice of a 26, 43 and 62-mile route that will take you across the southern half of Anson County that has many Piedmont features of North Carolina's mountain foothills.

Main points of interest along the routes include the "James Bennett" house where Stephen Spielberg filmed The Color Purple, the old chimney of the Knox Inn in historic Speedsboro, Long Pine Church – the oldest deeded Methodist church in NC, a climb up the "Devil's Backbone" near Meltonville Church, and the birthplace of Hugh Hammond Bennett, father of soil conservation in America.

The entry fee is $40 per rider. A downloadable registration form is available at www.ansoncounty.org. On the day of the bike ride, registration begins at 8 a.m. at First Baptist Church, 309 Lee Avenue in Wadesboro. The ride will receive the "green flag" at 9 a.m.

The Discover Anson Bike Ride is being held in conjunction with the Taste of the Pee Dee: Arts, Crafts & Outdoor Living in Uptown Wadesboro that will offer lots of fun activities, food, crafts and more that you and your family can enjoy. Funding for the Bike Ride Postcards and Flyers was provided by Anson County Tourism Development Authority. For more information, call the Anson County Chamber of Commerce at 704-694-4181 or visit www.ansoncounty.org.

October Programs at NC Museum of History

October brings live bluegrass to the N.C. Museum of History in Raleigh. Don't miss a reunion of the New Deal String Band, and bring your instrument for the PineCone Bluegrass Jam. While at the museum, be sure to see the exhibit Carolina Bluegrass: Breakdowns and Revivals, featuring Earl Scruggs' banjo and Doc Watson's guitar.

Bring the kids to the spooktacular Halloween Safe Night at the Museum on October 31. There will be many treats in store throughout the exhibit The Story of North Carolina. Many other children's programs will take place throughout the month.

If you need advice about caring for a treasured possession, sign up for an appointment during Conservation Assistance Day. Or if you are interested in digital photo restoration, join a workshop with photographer Dr. Roger Scott.

Mark your calendar for these October happenings and more at the N.C. Museum of History. Programs are free unless otherwise noted. Parking is free on weekends. (* Marks programs of interest to children or families.)

- Storytime in the Gallery, Thursdays, Oct. 9, 16, 23 and 30, 10-10:30 a.m. Ages 3 and up (with adult). Meet a staff member at the information desk and follow your guide to one of the museum galleries. There, you can look around and listen to a history-related story.

- History à la Carte: In the Shadow of the Blue Ridge, Wednesday, Oct. 8, noon-1 p.m. Bring your lunch; beverages provided. Doug Porter Jr., Historic Site Manager, City of Raleigh. Porter will explore an important, but often overlooked, portion of North Carolina: Surry County and the North Carolina foothills - in many ways, a distinctive region with its own folkways and identity.

- Starring North Carolina! Film Series: "Maximum Overdrive" Friday, Oct. 10, 6 p.m. $5 per person; $4 for museum members. Join us on the second Friday of each month to celebrate the films of North Carolina. Speakers will introduce each film at 6 p.m. Watch "Maximum Overdrive" (MPAA rating: R-L,V) in Daniels Auditorium.

- *Make It, Take It: Face Jugs, Saturday, Oct. 11, noon-3 p.m. (drop-in program). Hear some North Carolina pottery history, and craft a little clay "face" of your own.

- Music of the Carolinas: Sara Grey & Kieron Means, Sunday, Oct. 12, 3 p.m. A love of old-time banjo music and traditional songs have led Grey and her son to collecting and performing folk songs and melodies from across America and Great Britain. The performance is presented with PineCone and support from the N.C. Museum of History Associates and Williams Mullen.

- Digital Photo Restoration Workshop, Saturday, Oct. 18, 1-3 p.m. Ages 16 and up, $30 per person; $25 for museum members. To register, visit ncmoh.org. Dr. Brenda Scott, Guest Curator, Stagville: Black & White. Photographer Scott provides a tour of the exhibit and an overview of digital photo restoration techniques. The first four registrants will receive a free 15-minute individual consultation following the workshop.

- The Wilmington Campaign: Last Rays of Departing Hope and Fort Anderson: Battle for Wilmington. Fonvielle will discuss Lt. William B. Cushing (U.S. Navy) and his crew's sinking of the CSS Albemarle. Commander Cushing and his crew were responsible for destroying the ironclad vessel in October 1864.

- Saturdays in the Garden, Saturday, Oct. 11, 1:30-2:30 p.m. Join the museum's garden staff for an informal tour of the History of the Harvest exhibit along Bicentennial Plaza and see what's going on! Tours begin at the information desk in the lobby.

- Conservation Assistance Day, Friday, Oct. 24, 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Appointment is required. Call Jan Sweatt at 919-807-7823. Do you have questions about caring for a treasured possession? Make an appointment and you may bring up to three objects to the museum for assessment and advice on care from a museum conservator.

- Halloween Safe Night at the Museum, Friday, Oct. 31, 6-9 p.m. Ages 12 and under (with adult), Call 919-872-9535, ext. 3069, for information. Search out candies and treats as you walk along the trick-or-treat trail and through The Story of North Carolina. The event is sponsored by CW22 and MyRDC 28.

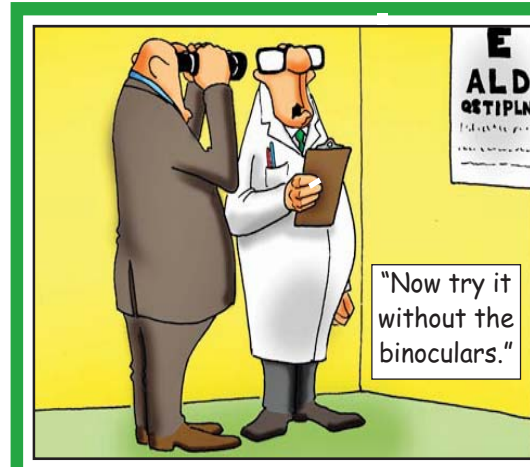

For information about the N.C. Museum of History, a Smithsonian-affiliated museum, call 919-807-7900 or access www.ncmuseumofhistory.org or follow on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Google+ or YouTube.

The N.C. Museum of History is located at 5 E. Edenton Street in downtown Raleigh. Hours are Monday through Saturday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Sunday, noon to 5 p.m. The museum collects and preserves artifacts of North Carolina history and educates the public on the history of the state and the nation through exhibits and educational programs. Each year more than 300,000 people visit the museum to see some of the 150,000 artifacts in the museum collection. The Museum of History, within the Division of State History Museums, is part of the N.C. Department of Cultural Resources.
