Something's Brewing in Uptown
Wadesboro, and It's a Jubilee!

New coffee lounge and emporium brings coffee, cocktails, food, gifts and a whole lot of personality to West Wade Street

Hold on to your coffee cups, Wadesboro! There's a new place in town where you can start your morning with a steaming cup of coffee, enjoy lunch with friends, browse for a special gift and, when the occasion calls for it, trade your coffee mug for a cocktail glass and let the good times roll!

The Jubilee Coffee Lounge & Emporium has opened at 122 West Wade Street in uptown Wadesboro, bringing an exciting combination of coffeehouse, lounge, bar and gift shop under one roof. And judging by everything on the menu, this is one business that has no intention of being boring.

Let's start with the coffee, because some of us maybe aren't particularly pleasant company until we've had our first cup. Jubilee offers coffee and other beverages, along with food and sandwiches for those who believe a good cup of coffee deserves something delicious to go with it.

But wait, there's more! This isn't your ordinary coffee shop where the most adventurous decision is whether to order a medium or large latte. Jubilee also features beer, wine, mixed drinks and a complete line of craft cocktails. There's even an extensive wine list and bar, meaning you can graduate from your morning coffee to an evening cocktail without having to learn a new address.

And just when you think you've figured out what kind of business this is, Jubilee throws in another surprise. The emporium offers gifts, greeting cards for all occasions, snacks and vintage candy. That's right, vintage candy! The kind of sweet treats that can transport you straight back to childhood, when a handful of candy cost pocket change and nobody worried about how many steps they'd taken that day.

Need a birthday card? They've got cards. Looking for a gift? Take a look around. Want a sandwich? You're covered. Need a cup of coffee? Absolutely. Had one of those days when coffee simply isn't going to solve the problem? Well, there's a bar for that, too.

Jubilee's slogan says it all: "Sip. Savor. Celebrate Life." And with a combination of food, drinks, shopping and opportunities to gather with friends, the business offers another inviting reason to spend time in uptown Wadesboro.

The new establishment also adds to the growing variety of experiences available in the heart of town. Whether you're meeting an old friend, taking a break from shopping, enjoying an evening out or simply looking for somewhere different to spend a little time, Jubilee hopes to become part of your routine.

And the hours are generous enough to accommodate just about everybody. Jubilee is open Monday through Saturday from 7 a.m. until 9 p.m., and Sunday from 10 a.m. until 7 p.m. That's plenty of time to stop in, settle down and perhaps discover that your quick coffee break has turned into a much longer visit.

For more information, call 704-465-2090.

So whether you're a coffee connoisseur, a cocktail enthusiast, a vintage candy collector or just somebody who enjoys good company, head uptown and see what's happening at Jubilee. After all, any place that offers all of that deserves at least one visit. Just try to remember what you originally went in for!

Attendees Can Catch a Buzz
at Anson Beekeepers Meeting

Oct. 22 gathering will feature tips on growing an apiary, door prizes and a 50-50 drawing

The Anson County Beekeepers Association will be buzzing with activity on Thursday, October 22, when members and guests gather for their regular monthly meeting at 7 p.m. at the Anson County Cooperative Extension Office, located at 501 McLaurin Street in Wadesboro.

The evening's featured speaker will be the association's own secretary, Logan High, who will present a program titled "Growing a Startup Apiary." Whether you're an experienced beekeeper or just thinking about getting into the honey business, the program promises some useful information.

The meeting will also feature a 50-50 drawing and door prizes. Attendees are encouraged to bring an item to contribute as a door prize if possible.

No meal will be served at this meeting, so attendees should eat before arriving. After all, the bees may be busy making honey, but they aren't providing supper!
