

Candlelight Vigil to Remember Domestic Violence Victims

The Anson County Domestic Violence Coalition will hold its 2026 Annual Candlelight Vigil this Thursday, October 29, at 6 p.m. at the Anson County Courthouse in Wadesboro. The community is invited to attend.

The annual gathering will honor and remember those whose lives have been lost to domestic violence while also standing in support and solidarity with victims and survivors of abuse.

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month, and the candlelight vigil offers Anson County residents an opportunity to come together as a community to remember those who have died and recognize those whose lives continue to be affected by domestic violence.

Among the known victims being remembered are Argatha H. Clark, Cindy B. McIntyre, Rebecca B. Morrow, Connie Newton, Laura Parker, Mary Polk, Danette Streater, Mary Jane Suess, Linda Kay Walters, Daisy Coleman Melton, Larry Thomas Lindsey, Jennifer Howell, Esther Brooks Hildreth, Sherri Feely Marshall, Elnora Sturdivant, Sherika Monique Little, Doretha Polk Smith, Rodney Smith, Kim Campbell, Deborah Wall Smith, Linda McCain, Daejunae Williams, Joseph Michael Hall, Dorothy Allen and Mianna Roach. Three unnamed victims and two unborn children are also remembered.

Each name represents a life cut short and a loss that continues to affect family members, friends and the community.

If you need help The Anson County Domestic Violence and Rape Crisis Center provides assistance and support to individuals affected by domestic violence and sexual assault. Anyone seeking information or assistance may call 704-694-4499.
