

It's a Wonderful Life: Live from WVLR Radio Theatre Comes to the Ansonia

The holiday season is upon us, and the Arts Council is bringing a perfect Christmas experience to the Ansonia Theatre. It's a Wonderful Life: Live from WVLR Radio Theatre comes to the stage on Sunday, December 15, at 3 p.m. Tickets go on sale December 1, and the single performance should sell out quickly. It's Christmas Eve in 1945, and only a handful of WVLR Radio's actors have braved the blizzard to perform that evening's broadcast of It's a Wonderful Life and keep the station afloat. This clever stage adaptation breathes new life into the poignant story of George Bailey and Bedford Falls. This "live broadcast" of Frank Capra's beloved film takes us back to the Golden Age of Radio. Due to a blizzard, the professional voice actors are unable to get through, but the show must go on - so a small but intrepid band of employees manages to create the dozens of movie characters and scenes using just their voices and a sound effects table.

When Frank Capra and his co-writers were working on the original screenplay of It's a Wonderful Life, the Great Depression was a vivid memory. The story of George Bailey and Bedford Falls is juxtaposed against a time of failing banks, devastating high unemployment and a shortage of affordable housing. The circumstances are eerily familiar, and over 60 years later, this story remains as fresh and relevant as ever. Its message of hope and optimism is the perfect antidote to holiday cynicism.

Relive the story of this holiday treasure, ranked #11 in the American Film Institute's list of the 100 best American films ever made - and also their #1 most inspirational American film of all time. "Sometimes the most wonderful gifts come wrapped in small packages, It's a Wonderful Life: Live from WVLR Radio Theatre is one of those...a perfect production. For those who remember the flashing applause signs and smaltzy organ music from radio station studios of old, it's a refreshing step back in time. Younger audiences are enchanted with the glimpse of entertainment the way it was before telephones came equipped with television." -The Mountaineer, Hayward County, NC

"You're guaranteed to walk out with a smile; the feel-good Christmas spirit rings true in this production where a community comes together to help out a friend in need." - The Elm Beginning December 1 tickets will be available online at www.ansoniatheatre.com and at the Anson County Arts Council (704-694-4950).

Sheriff's Fingerprinting
Service Schedule

Because of the Thanksgiving holiday the Anson County Sheriff's Business Office will be closed on Thursday and Friday, November 28th and 29th.

On Thursday, December 5th Wadesboro will have their annual Christmas Parade that starts at 4 p.m. and some streets may be closed off prior to that start time. Heavy traffic is expected in the uptown area that afternoon.

Thursday afternoons are normally when the Sheriff's Office does fingerprinting for citizens for various applications such as employment and concealed carry permits. Because of Thanksgiving and the parade, for the next two weeks the Sheriff's Office will move the fingerprinting from Thursdays to Wednesday afternoons from 2 to 4 p.m. to accommodate citizens needing fingerprinting.

This change is only for November 28th and December 5th. After then fingerprinting will resume on the normal Thursday afternoons from 2 to 4:30 p.m.
