Ms. Emma Caroline Wright

Ms. Emma Caroline Wright, 18, passed away Saturday, November 26, 2016, at Duke Hospital from anaphylactic shock.

A Celebration of her Life was held on Saturday, December 3, 2016 at Westminster Presbyterian Church in Durham, NC.

Emma was born January 19, 1998, in Durham, the daughter of Johnny Wright and Rexanna Kern Wright.

She is survived by her parents; her brother John Walter Wright III; and her grandmothers, Frances Wright of Wadesboro and Betty Kern of Fayetteville, NC. She was greeted in heaven by the loving arms of her grandfathers, John Wright and Tom Kern.

Emma was dearly loved by many aunts, uncles, cousins and her boyfriend Luke Batten. She was the proud "mom" to her black lab LuLu.

Emma received her education at Hope Valley Elementary, Seawell Elementary and Smith Middle School in Chapel Hill, and Voyager Academy in Durham. She was a talented artist and enjoyed expressing her talents in pen and ink drawings and painted pictures. She was also an accomplished baker and cake decorator. Luke was always the willing "taster" and supporter.

Emma will be remembered for many things, especially her zest for life, always ready for adventure, the twinkle in her eyes, her kind and loving ways and her compassion for others. She had chosen to be an organ donor and would be happy that she was able to save other lives. Both her sweet and her mischievous smiles will be missed. She loved her brother very much and always "had his back." Emma was an avid Tarheel fan, she loved working with children, and was a genuine friend. She was a blessing to all who knew her.

One of Emma's favorite quotes was, "Life isn't about waiting for the storms to pass...it's about learning to dance in the rain."

Memorials may be made to the Asthma & Allergy Foundation of America or to your favorite charity.
