Free Groceries Available to Eligible Families

Free USDA foods will be distributed today, Wednesday, December 19 and Saturday, December 22, from 9 to 11 a.m., or as long as supplies last, at Burnsville Recreation & Learning Center (BRLC). Please note that neighbors will only be served once monthly with these items as long as they last.

The North Carolina Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services Food Distribution Division provide these food items through the Second Harvest Food Bank of Metrolina in Charlotte.

The US federal income guidelines will be a determining factor for individual's eligibility. The food items will only be available to Ansonians. Individuals who have not registered or received food before from the BRLC Emergency food Pantry must have financial documentation as proof of income to be served. Those families who receive food stamp assistance will automatically qualify. Parents are asked not to bring children due to limited seating space. Neighbors are asked to please park in parking lot behind center.

The USDA prohibits discrimination against its customers, employees and applicants on the bases of race, color, national origin, age, disability, sex gender identity, religion, reprisal, and where applicable, political belief, marital status, familial or parental status, sexual orientation, or if all or part of an individual's income is derived from any public assistance program, or protected genetic information in employment or in any program or activity conducted or funded by the Department. Not all prohibited bases will apply to all program and activities.

You can contact BRLC at 704-826-8737 for information, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Thursday. BRLC is located at 13349 Highway 742 North in Burnsville, across from the Fire Department.

Christmas Dinner for the Homeless is this Saturday

Faith Based Center of Hope will host their annual Christmas dinner for the homeless this Saturday, December 22 at Ebenezer Missionary Baptist Church, located on Salisbury Street in Wadesboro, beginning at 11:00 a.m. Each year CEO Vancine Sturdivant joins with various churches, businesses, organizations, elected officials and concerned citizens to provide a hot Christmas meal for our less fortunate brothers and sisters. Pastor Alban Burney and Deacon Dan Taylor of Ebenezer Missionary Baptist Church have graciously opened their doors and allowed the dinner to be held there.

"My husband William L. 'Mr. Gumby' Sturdivant, Sr. and I started this in the late 1990s," Sturdivant said. "One of the highlights of the dinner is everyone who attends leaves with a gift-wrapped present or two. All during the year we will purchase items of clothing, sweaters, socks, gloves things for winter and wrap them. Each box will have on the bottom what is in there. The day before the dinner, bows are put on each gift. If we do not have a gift wrapped for someone, we have tables and cloth racks with new items hanging there, and they can pick out their size and we wrap them during the dinner. The look on their face is all the gratitude we need. We all know how it feels to open something at Christmas."

Pastor Michael McLeod of Pleasant Hill Missionary Church will be present with his Christmas blessing. He gives each person an envelope with money and allows use of the church van. Attorney Evadne Smith-Little will be present with clothing and shoes.

Sturdivant concluded, "We need vans to help get our brothers and sisters to the dinner. Anyone wishing to donate to the dinner or give a monetary donation to help purchase winter items, please contact me at 704 848-4412. Thank you."
