

BRLC Outreach Thanksgiving Event

In a release from Burnsville Recreation & Learning Center: On Tuesday November 26 at 5 p.m. Burnsville Recreation & Learning Center was richly filled by community people from all parts of Anson County. The weather was rainy, cold and dreary outside but inside the building the expressions of thankfulness and giving made the occasion very warm. This once a year event provides for families that may not have a Thanksgiving meal or may need help with food at Thanksgiving.

Volunteers Mary and Sara Chauceau contacted the families that would receive the filled baskets, along with a turkey and other food items to carry home and prepare for their families. There were a total of 27 different families with children who were extended this kindness.

The evening was started off with supper at 5 p.m with volunteers Deloris Hammond and Linda Pratt catering the meal. The meals consisted of baked spaghetti, baked mac & cheese, toasted garlic bread, salad, assorted desserts and drinks. Volunteers Jeremy Sikes and Brenda Benton worked the serving line. There were 60 plus people who attended this event. The churches that participated and provided baskets to families were Harmony Community Church (Pastor Rocky Carpenter) - 10 boxes; Rocky River Baptist Church (Pastor Dennis Stegall) - 10 boxes; Hopewell United Methodist Church (Pastor Paul McClure) - 3 boxes; and Fountain Hill United Methodist Church (Pastor Cory Blackman) - 2 boxes. BRLC volunteers donated 2 boxes.

Mary Thomas facilitated the event which consisted of the BRLC Kids Café after school students singing Jesus Loves Me, singing by Minister Mary Burns, and a solo by Crouse Carpenter. The John and Rosa Brewer Scholarship was awarded to Miss. Allana Jackson. This scholarship is awarded to a deserving student who has given of their time as a youth volunteer. To qualify for the scholarship youth provide BRLC with a written essay of what the BRLC has meant to them as a youth volunteer. Allana is presently a freshman at the University of North Carolina - Greensboro. She desires to study in the field of Human psychology.

Donna McNair, Pastor of Fairview Church of God, spoke to the group on how important it is to be thankful and always remember to say thank you. Marcella Broadway was responsible for the door prize drawing and making sure that all attendees signed in. Pastor Carpenter, Pastor McNair and Pastor McClure closed with the song Amazing Grace and laying on of hands to Mrs. Carol Smith, BRLC director. They each deposited spiritual strength and encouragement as she continues in the journey that has been set before her.
