

Mrs. Jerrie "Diane" Hildreth

Mrs. Jerrie "Diane" Hildreth went to her heavenly home on December 16, 2018.

A service to celebrate her life was held on Friday, December 21, 2018, at Centerview Baptist Church in Marshville.

She was brought into this world on April 8, 1946, to the late Clarence and Mildred Laney, whom she loved dearly.

She leaves behind her husband Robert Hildreth; devoted daughter Connie Knight, favorite son-in law Charles Knight; granddaughters, April (Jarrod) Bess and Lauren Knight; great grandbabies, Noah Knight, Brynlee Bess and Brystol Bess; sisters, Louise Bradshaw and Donna Sexton; and many nieces and nephews whom she loved like her very own.

Along with her parents, she was preceded in death by her sisters, Jean Elliott and Mildred Hyatt.

Holland Funeral Service & Crematory served the Hildreth family.

Remembering.....
By Ed McBride

Royal Tire Service, Inc.

This one goes back some years - it was the Cooke Chevrolet dealership location for many years and the only dealership that I can remember locally that had their service department on the second floor. The cars would enter the service department at the back of the building, driving on to the elevator, going to the second floor for service! Crawford Motor Co. purchased the Chevrolet agency in 1959, moving same to their Salisbury Street location.

Along that time Jimmy Burns' father, Herbert Burns, moved the Royal Tire Service from what is now the Wadesboro city hall to the Cooke building after remodeling.

You will note from the above picture, that this was a "big grand opening deal" - I had painted Royal Tire Service, Inc. across the front - and also on the glass windows - "Grand Opening" - "free prizes," "drawing for car," etc.

Herbert, brother Charles Burns, brother-in-law Robert Tyson, Max Randle, Ervin Leons, and Ralph Honeycutt were some of the folks there then. Herbert is now retired, living at Myrtle Beach, SC, while several of above are now deceased - and son, Jimmy is with the Wadesboro Fire Department, something his daddy, uncles and many "older friends" did many years ago!

Free Movie is The Bells of St. Mary's

The Hampton B. Allen Library announces the free movie (note date change due to the holiday schedule) for Monday, December 31 at 10 a.m. in the Little Theatre. The movie is The Bells of St. Mary's starring Bing Crosby and Ingrid Bergman.

Father O'Malley, the unconventional priest from 'Going My Way', continues his work for the Catholic Church. This time he is sent to St. Mary's, a run-down parochial school on the verge of condemnation. He and Sister Benedict work together in an attempt to save the school, though their differing methods often lead to good-natured disagreements. Everyone is invited to come and enjoy this movie. Any questions please call 704-694-5177.
