

Auto Racing: Then and Now!

Some several years ago - mostly in late summer and early fall, I lettered a few race cars for different people, many of whom were racing on dirt tracks. The picture above is one car that I lettered on June 15, 1979 (Big A Parts - Buddy Joe Cox, Driver).

Now, can you believe that I was one of a few to "go to the race" at the Charlotte Motor Speedway last Friday to celebrate Nannie Sue Neal's 102nd birthday. She is the oldest living survivor of breast cancer in North Carolina, a period of 57 years. She was honored by the speedway and drivers.

Others sharing the honors with Nannie Sue were her daughter Betty Boyd, granddaughter Betty Lynn and husband Jeff, grandson Jordan Krafft, Carol Kraft and myself. Nannie Sue received a plaque naming her "Honorary Race Director" for the Dollar General 300 Miles of Courage NASCAR Nationwide Series race at Charlotte Motor Speedway on Friday, October 14.

To honor her birthday and her battle with breast cancer, Marcus Smith, the President and General Manager of the Speedway, presented Nannie Sue with the plaque. Oh, what a day!!
